The resolution is accompanied by a long preamble reciting that the strike of the locomotive engineers on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad resulted in an obstruction to interstate commerce, and put in jeopardy the public peace; that the management of that road claims to have supplied with competent men the places vacated at the time of the strike and to have restored the company to the proper discharge of its public duties and obligations as a common carrier; that it is alleged that the new men are incompetent and unfit to discharge the duties of locomotive engineers; that a strike of a substantially similar character is in progress on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Railroad, and that such conflicts between the officers and employée of companies being common carriers are matters of great national concern, demanding prompt and careful consideration by Congress. intrusion from federal authority as the regulation of foreign commerce by general Government is from encroachment upon that Province by State authority. In the opinion of the committee, it is best to leave the question as it now is, a judicial one, in the highest interest et both federal regulations of commerce and State control of its police authority. The minority report, signed by Senators Wilson, Ingalis and Edmunds, says it would seem that the legislative and judicial departments of the Government concur in the answer that the character of legislation presented by this bill is within the constitutional power of Congress, that it does not violate the injunction of the Constitution that all duties, imports and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States. Importers of ardent spirits, or of any other article of foreign production, are entitled to no greater protection under the Constitution than is the dealer in like articles of domestic manufacture. The one pays an internal revenue tax, the other pays a tax levied by the custom-house, and what Congress may constitutionally say about one it may repeat as to the other.

AH, JOE!

PRE CHINESE PIRE-BUG IS AC-

All They Ever Knew About the Case—The Heathen Shows Up

The heathen Ah Joe, with his neighbors and friends in Chinatown, were in a state of jubilation yesterday evening at having gained their case in the Superior Court. Ah Joe was accused of having deliber-ately set fire to some cotton material in a store on Nigger alley on the night of the 24th of July last during the time that a confingration was raging on another part of the street. At the preliminary examination in Justice Austin's court the officer who swore out the complaint and also Sacket Cornell testified positively as to what took place on Cornell had apparently lost all recollection of what transpired. His answers were given in the most general way, and the con-given in the most general way, and the conclusion to be drawn from his evidence was entirely at variance with the transcribed notes of the preliminary examination.

Ah Joe, while testifying on his own be half, gave a lucid description of what occurred, or, at least, what he said occurred, and he sat on the witness stand the picture of innocence.

The prosecution falled to substantiate the charge made in consequence of the defective memories of their witnesses, and Ah Joe, as he trotted out of court, doubtless congratulated himself on having escaped from the clutches of the law by an exercise of the ability, seemingly possessed by his race, to befool the authorities.

The first witness put forward was John Stevenson, the arresting officer, who testified: On the morning of the 24th of July, during a fire on Nigger alley, I saw Ah Joe coming out of a storehouse, where I noticed fire. On examination I found some curtains in flames, and after extinguishing them I took defendant to the police station. On his being searched, a revolver, hatchet and some miscellaneous articles were found upon his person. The confingration on Nigger alley that night was about 50 feet from where the defendant tried to set fire to the store. At first he submitted to arrest, but afterward tried to escape.

S. Cornell, who was the most important witness at the preliminary examination, stated: At the time of the fire on July 24th on Nigger alley, I was there in my capacity as a reporter on the Herald. I was the first one who saw the blaze in the store, and the defendant tried to set fire to the store. At first he submitted to arrest, but afterward tried to escape.

S. Cornell, who was there in my capacity as a reporteron the Herald. I was the first one who saw the blaze in the store, and the defendant in close proximity to it. When I went inside he was squatting down, beating the fire, I may have stated in Judge Austin's court that when I went in he was coming away from the fire, and upon my asking him a question he retreated back and commen

C. E. Beebe, the officer who held Ah Joe while his brother officer made an examination of the premises, stated: I was on the police force at the time of the fire in Chinatown last July. On the 24th I was called by Officer Stevenson to take charge of the defendant, who was in a storeroom on Nigger alley. I detained him in custody until Officer Stevenson came out, when we took him to the station. I saw the fire inside the room; it was then smoldering without any blaze. There were large numbers of people out that night, attracted by the fire in Chinatown.

Cross-examined: I remember Ah Joe carrying some things in his hand, particularly a small tin box.

The prosecution having rested their case, the first witness called by the defense was J. McAllister, who, being sworn, testified:

THE TRIBUNE FOOLED.

A Reporter Gets the Jim-jams and Stumbles In a Vacant House. Last week certain of the residents on the hill at the head of West First street reported to the police that a cottage in that neigh boihood was deserted, although bearing all the marks of recent habitation. Investiga-tion revealed the fact that to some extent the report was not unfounded. The doors of the cottage were unlocked, and upon the left exposed, subject to the depredating in-left exposed, subject to the depredating instincts of any tramp who might happen along.

A morning contemporary, keenly on the alert for an "item," followed the matter up, and in yesterday's issue published a long and harrowing account of the experiences of one of its reporters (?), who mounted the hill to the cottage on Saturday night with the intention of probing the truth of the "alleged" report that the cottage had been deserted on account of its being haunted. The facts elicited by a Trues man yesterday go to show that, with one exception, and certainly a very striking one, it was an absolute impossibility that any reporter could have had the ludicrously inconsistent experiences on Saturday night as related could have had the indicrously inconsistent experiences on Saturday night as related yesterday. It would be wearisome and utterly futile to take the various assertions seriatim and prove them untrue; suffice it to say that some of the most startling manifestatious were asserted by the vertage.

THE SECOND GRAND EXCURSION

Will Leave the Commercial-street Station at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, March 31, 1888.

Only 20 minutes' ride to Burbank. Returning, will reach Los Angeles at 3:30 p.m.

There will be no auctien sale and no one will be asked to purchase property. Our only object is to afford an opportunity to all to see Burbank and form their own opinion from a personal examination of its merits. In this lively competition for public favor among the growing towns of Southern California, the zealous (and sometimes jealous) advocate of his own town will detract from the merits of some rival locality that is pushing past him to the front. In this way some unfair statements have been put forth as to the merits of Burbank. So confident are we that a personal visis to Burbank will refute and silence all such statements, we have decided to run this pleasure excursion and invite every one to join us, spend a pleasant day, examine and decide for themselves. We have never had but one excursion, never employed a brass hand nor had street parades; have offered no lottery schemes to tempt purchasers to invest. But, without any show or parade, we have in a few months sold over 900 town lots and 2000 acres of land adjoining, aggregating nearly $600,000. In less than ten months a grain field has been converted into a growing, prosperous town of over 250 bona fide inhabitants. Water, pure, clear and abundant, has been piped to every lot in the town. A 60-room hotel, a street car line one and a half miles in length completed and in operation, brick block erected, stores and bank building completed, a $7000 schoolhouse under contract, two churches in process of construction, a furniture manufactory to employ from 100 to 200 workmen and to be in operation by June 1st, and new dwellings being commenced every day, bespeak for Burbank a push and prosperity not surpassed by any tewn of its age in the State of California.

NOTE THE FACT: That Burbank is today the most properous suburb of Los Angeles; that Burbank will within 90 days have better and cheaper railroad communication with Los Angeles than any other suburban town; that Burbank will have the largest furniture factory on the Pacific Coast; that Burbank has the most perfect water system, the purest and a superabundance of water; that Burbank possesses a most equable climate, cool in summer and warm in winter; that Burbank is the Commercial center of one of the most fertile and fruitful valleys in Southern California; that Burbank is surrounded by a country that will grow all kinds of cereals and fruits, including oranges and lemons, clives and English walnuts; that the Ostrich Farm Motor Road will be completed to Burbank within 60 days.

Round Trip Tickets, Twenty-five (25) Cents. Tickets can be had at the office of the company.

A Word of Advice.

It seems that the news from the East, published yesterday, to the effect that the strike on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé system was at an end, was premature. The strike still continues and transportation business on the lines of that system, throughout ceived its just reward, and if there is a The Result of a Township Canvass of Arizona and Southern California, is at standstill.

As we stated a few days ago, so long as the Brotherhood of Engineers confined their attack to the Burlington Company, against which they claim to have a grievance, the sympathy of the public was largely with them, as they and reasonable in their demands. In he present strike against the Santa Fé they seem, however, to be acting in a most unreasonable and unfair manner, as a result of which they are rapidly turning the sympathy of the public from them. They may possibly think themselves independent of public sentiment, but we would remind United States, where the popular voice rules, no organization, however powerful, can long exist in the face of an ad-

Let us briefly glance at the facts of play upon words. They have struck. They say, again, that they have received no orders to strike. That is another assertion which the public will take the liberty of disbelieving. The men say themselves that they have no grievances against the company. Their committee was met by the mpany in a spirit which they admit to have been fair and just, and agreed in writing upon all matters relating to terms of this written contract, it was provided that no employé shall be discharged without cause and a hearing before an impartial board, and the men quit the service without giving 30 days' agreement, the engineers and firemen quit work on the 15th inst. at 10 min-

It is true that in the matter of the Burlington road, the Santa Fé Company, while assuring the men that they had and would maintain absolute neutrality in that controversy, informed them that they could not promise to disobey the laws of the United States The committee of employés assured the company that they did not expect them to violate the laws. Yet for that reason they have struck! For that and that they have no grievance against the company. The courts have decided that railroad companies must move cars of the Burlington or any other road when offered. The men say, in effect: "If you do not refuse to obey the decision of the courts, we will do our best to prevent you from operating your road." Upon this equally illegal and illogical ground they undertake to thrown the entire business of this section into confusion, to cause serious loss and inconvenience to thousands of innocent persons, to throw out of employment a large number of employés in the operating and mechanical departments of the road, and to inflict misery upon many families along the line of the road in Arizona, who depend upon water which is hauled by

We would give a few words of advice to the engineers and firemen of the Santa Fé Company. We have always felt much respect for the body of which they are members. As a class, the locomotive engineers and firemen stand in the front rank of skilled labor in this country. They are men of exceptional intelligence and sobriety. On the other hand, THE Times will not be accused of any undue leaning toward the corporate wealth. What we say may therefore be considered as disinterested It is this: Pause and reflect before you decide to persevere in a which will, as sure as the course THE Iowa Central Railroad, which sun shines, mark the commence-enjoyed. ment of the downfall of your organization. We will not insist upon the legal side of the question, although that is undoubtedly against you, but, should every court in the United States decide in your favor and the final Court of Public Opinion be against you, as it most decidedly is in this instance, you are playing a losing game. You may injure the company and the public for a time, but in the end you will be the heaviest sufferers, and will have no one to blame for

Capital and Labor.

The year 1888, from present indications, will be one fraught with more than ordinary results.

The labor question, as now presented, will of itself tax to the utmost the best minds of our Nation. No question, short of our national existence, has ever come home as closely to the well-being of the whole country as the antagonism which now exists between capital and labor. Upon the tween capital and labor are tween capital are tween capital and labor are tween capital are tween surface, it will appear to the casual observer to be confined to railroads and their employés alone. This, however, is a fatal mistake, for the actions, both of the employes and the officers of the roads, rest upon fundamental princi-ples. Fundamental in this, that a man has a right, under the laws of the it now promises soon to be. The South land, to sell his labor for the best market price, and to whomsoever wishes him to dispose of it. On the other hand the employer has the same rights to buy that labor or refuse, as his interests or judgment may cise of those rights leads to violen and the obstruction of the rights of others, then, indeed, do wrong and injuries follow.

to receive full value; nor do we find it in our heart to condemn labor organ izations. As a rule, labor has not re class of men on earth who have a right to protect their capital (labor), it is that class who earn their living by their hands.

Corporations, aggregations of capital as a rule become aggressive, exacting and oppressive. This is natural, and in accord with the selfishness of man's nature. Wealth usually tollows aggregation of money-money, is power, and it is a fact as old as the human family, that power in any direction once obtained never surrendered except when broken. We thus have the union of two powerful elements combined in one person, power and selfishness, two of the very worst attributes of man's these men that, in a country like the nature, if they may be called attributes. But if this is true of the aggregation of money it is equally true of the aggregation of individuals, bent upon a single purpose. And while labor has the local strike. The men say they are without doubt, great wrongs to be not striking. That is simply a childish righted, it may become equally aggressive, selfish and tyranical and thus en danger the peace, prosperity and busi-ness interests of the country. The solution of this great question and the interests which appear so diametrically opposed, is the more difficult to handle because of the fact that the two parties stand upon the same great fundimental principle. Labor is by far the greatest capital of the world. There is vastly more of it offered in the open market than all duties and compensation. By the other factors of civilization. Year by year it increases, and there is more of it for sale, while on the other hand, money capital is becoming more and more centralized, and thus, by the laws of accretion and distribution, the anagonism is deepened and widened.

This state of things between capital and labor ought not to exist, and if the rights, duties and obligation taught by the higher law were observed, the difficulty would at once be solved.

No intelligent man will question for moment but that capital and labor are equally dependent upon each other. What would labor be worth if it could not supply the demands of our existence; and, again, what would money wealth be to the possessor, unless it could purchase the products of labor? Thus, there is a mutual dependence. Philosophize, however, as we may for no other, for they admit themselves about this great question, there is something radically wrong somewhere.

Nay, this great national question; question of the Nineteenth Century must be settled, and that, too,

The Burlington Company can bring suit that will impose a $5000 penalty for each refusal. The engineers are placing the roads in a position which compels the latter to bring on strikes. The Republican Party in Better Fight ing Trim Than Ever.

The Rattle in November to Be a Straight Fight Between the Two Big Parties-The Relative Strength of the Various Candidates.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—[Special.]

A Philadelphia dispatch says: The Times
prints a review of the Presidential possiprints a review of the Presidential possibilities, the result of a township canvase in five States—Pennsylvania, New York, Ohlo, Indiana and Minnesota. From every section come reports that the Republican party is in better fighting shape than at this time four years ago. Dissensions and personal ambitions have been wholly dropped, the one idea being that of winning. It will be a campaign between the two old parties, and the third or fourth party will not affect the result. The tariff will be the main issue. Of the prohibition movement, it is asserted of some four or five counties in Western and Central New York, and nine counties in Minnesota, that it is on the in-crease, and something must be done, if possible, to win the temperance people back. In all other districts it is em-phatically asserted that the Prohibition vote will not change the ac-tual result. All agree that the temperance advocates are holding their own, except in Pennsylvania, where the high-license laws have taken the wind from their sails to a great extent. In several New York and Indiana city wards it is admitted that the Prohibitionists will gain some, but it is denied that enough will be affected to change the result. As Republicans were liable to be prejudiced in their testimony on this question, leading Democrats were consulted in five States, and the result of their im-pressions is not much different from that given by the Republicans. A concensus of given by the Republicans. A concensus of opinion of all Republicans residing in alnost every ward and township in all five States, and of several hundred leading Republicans scattered throughout them, may be set down as this: That the battle in ovember will be a straight fight between the two big parties, and any third issu now in sight will not cut any considerable how in sight will not cut any consucrative figure either in the campaign or the result. Beginning in the Northwest, it is found that Lincoln leads in Minnesota for first choice, with Gresham a close second. Indiana is for Harrison, and Ohio is solid diameter. for Sherman, who will have the solid dele gation in the Chicago convention. Penn-sylvania is safely Republican for anybody, but since Blaine's withdrawal there is no settled concensus of preferences, though Sherman and Depew are the most popular by far. The most carefully canvassed State was New York, where Depew seems tury must be settled, and that, too, upon the eternal principles of truth and justice. The civilized world will demand its settlement, and the man who is able to solve it upon such principles will stand foremost and upon permost in the hearts of the people.

State was New York, where Depew seems to be gaining strength.

Times' canvass, and says: "More than 7000 responses were received. The canvass was been out of the race, yet nearly one-third say they will have him anyway, declination. The next and which Allison exhibits any strength is Minnesota. Hiscock has nearly as large a total as Allison, but it is to be remembered bonsidered, a big spring boom can be ex-bected, accompanied by visitors from East to West.

Here is a very sound opinion on the recent tactics of the striking engineers.

LOZAL GOVERNMENT FOR ENGLAND.

LONDON, March 19.—In the Commons this evening, Ritchie, President of the Local Government Board, introduced a local government bill for England and Wales. The bill proposes to establish councils, to be elected directly by the ratepayers, which are to have control of the county police, and to wield the powers now exercised by the local authorities. The Local Government elected directly by the ratepayers, which are to have control of the county police, and to wield the powers now exercised by the local authorities. The Local Government Board is to retain its present power to control the borrowing of money by counties and to audit the accounts of countles, and is also to fix the number of members of county councils. Other provisions give the councils oversight of lunatic asylums, workhouses, reformatory and industrial schools, and power to grant licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors. An important feature of the proposal is the division of the whole country into suburban and rural districts, within which women ratepayers will be allowed to vote for members of the councils. London will be created a county by itself under a lord lieutenant. The city will lose all administrative duties, and the whole police force will remain under the charge of the home office. Liverpool, Birmingham, Manchester, Leeds, Sheffield, Bristol, Bradford, Nottingham, Hull and Newcastie will also constitute counties in themselves. Gladstone called attention to the entire absence in Ritchie's statement of any reference to Ireland. It was obvious, he said, that both Ireland and Scotland were specially excluded from the bill.

The scheme presents some difficulty in that it comepels some entirely European communities to conform to the features of Cossack life.

ney-General Johnson, it appears that on June 30, 1887, there remained a balance of $9080 from the appropriation of $90,000 made subsequent to the passage of the joint resolution of the Legislature of 1885, authorizing the publication by the State Printing Office of the final report of the State Engineer on irrigation. Claims against this balance for various services alleged to have been performed were signed "correct" by State Engineer Hall, approved by the State Board of Examiners, and the Controller states that the warrants for the same were issued by him. He now says he has learned, and the result of investigations show, that though the bills were approved June 30, 1887, for work purporting to have been already done, even at the present time some of the work has not been commenced, some has only been finished within a month, and the major portion of the work was finished subsequent to the time for which he bills were allowed, and therefore in contravention of the law. Attorney-ceneral Johnson wrote to the Controller as follows: "In reply to yours of the 17th instant, informing me that the State Engineer has knowingly given false certificates in respect to claims connected with his department for which be District Attorney, whom I've seen in this matter and who will see that proper complaints are filed." He adds that as the parties were aware of all the facts when they took the warrants, have not been presented to the State Treasurer.

An order has been sent to Ballet Master Ambrosetti of Paris by the Khedive of Egypt for a ballet to be delivered at once at Cairo. The conditions imposed by the princely Governor of Egypt, the lieutenant of the Sultan, are quite appropriate for an epicure, but remarkably exacting for a ballet. A Bloodthirsty Bruiser.

[San Diege Union.]

The Chicago Mail calls attention to the pessible portentious quietude of the Ahkoond of Swaat. We agree with the Mail that the Ahkoond ought to be interviewed and made to announce his intentions. He has not been heard from for so long that the world is entitled to an explanation. He may be laying for a chance to come out from his mountain fastnesses and strike terror, or spread destruction, or mop up the earth with his neighbors in some way equally terrific and extraordinary.

When the Ahkoond gets ready he never stops to send any notes to the great powers. He just wades in like an Illinois cyclone. He is a bloodthirsty bruiser and loves gore. His rapacity is equal to that of a Los Angeles real-estate agent, and he depopulates a country worse than a Fresso rabbit drive. He ought to be looked after, but not stirred up. A Bloodthirsty Bruiser.

If any friend of the Ahkoond thinks this article does that potentate an injustice he will be allowed the use of our columns for a reply at regular rates.

A FEW EXPLANATORY NOTES.

Maurice, No. 18 South Spring street, have purchased from the company 220 acres, under an agreement to plant it all in oranges; and twenty other parties have bought 320 acres more and signed obligations to plant at least half of it in fruits by May 1, 1888. These facts apeak for what sort of land and water we have, and you bet our tract is booming. Apply to Porter Land and Water Company, corner First and Spring streets, Los Angeles, or to C. J. Meddis. San Fernando.

The Porter Land and Water Company has, in addition to its flowing waters, struck a wonderful artesian belt at San Fernando. The well-borers say there is no limit to the water. It is a sight well worth seeing. The company's office is at First and Spring streets. Every available horse at San Fernando is now used on the 700 acres which 30 different parties are putting in fruit trees. Don't this look like businees? Merit wins.

The Men Have Not Yet Received Orders to Go to Work-Managers of the Road Are Hopeful-They Be lieve Trains Will Be Running Soon

It was a great disappointment to both the Santa Fé officials, as well as the public, yesterday morning when it was learned that no trains would be sent out over that road during the day, as it was confidently expected that all differences were adjusted and that there was nothing in the way of the resumption of trails. The telegraphic advices were all favorable, it having been stated that the men had been ordered back to work by the Grievance Committee, and the hitch in the proceedings was the subject of general comment on the streets. A Times reporter saw Superintendent Gatt, but that gentlemen said that he knew absostated that the men had been ordered back to work by the Grievance Committee, and the nitch in the proceedings was the subject of general comment on the streets. A Third reporter saw Superintendent Gatt, but that gentiemen said that he knew absolutely nothing as to the cause of the continued refusal of the men to return to work. All that he had heard was that there had been a conference of the engineers at San Bernardino, but he had not learned the result of their deliberations. He could not say when they would resume business. There was absolutely nothing on which to base an opinion. General Agent Williamson Dunn was in the same fay. He had received no advices, and could only say that they were not even running mail cars on the Atlantic and Pacific. A number of engineers were also seen at the roundhouse at the depot, but they positively indicated the positively about any strike. One old fellow, when "twigged" about the men being so close-mouthed, good naturedly remarked "that that was one of the symptoms of the disease with which they were all suffering just that was one of the symptoms of the disease with which they were all suffering just now." It was stated that the brotherhood had no official in this city competent to give any information, but that everything must come from the chairman of the Grievance Committee at San Bernardino. After trying for half an hour to get some expression of opinion one way or the other, the reporter gave up the attempt as a bad job.

The California Central got out one mail train yesterday, which got as far as an adventure of the county of the Santa Fé strikers were present, but if anything was done it could not be learned what it was. No trouble on this root, and the county of the court, it is perhaps natural that Mr. de Laveaux value of the court of the Cauta of the court of the court could not be verified, as the office of the company had closed.

General Manager McCool has issued a circular, with the approval of Vice-President Smith, which, after reciting the relations between the company and the engineers, concludes as follows: "I appeal to you to reconsider your action and return to your posts of duty, on or before 4 o'clock p.m., Thursday, the 22d inst. At the expiration of the time limited as above, the agreement between you and the California Southern Railroad and the California Central Railway Companies will terminate, unless in the meantime you have resumed your customary runs, and we will proceed to reorganize our force by employing new men whenever they can be found to take the places of such of you as remain off duty." This will probably bring matters to a focus, if they are not arranged before that time.

THAT QUEER GAME.

Bow the Political Bosses Got In and Defended Gambiers.

Rather a queer move was made at the police station the other night, Everybody who knows as much as a Democrat knows that Chinamen love to gamble. Next to eating boiled rice and stewed rats, John loves gambles, better then anothers also constituted. whack at a first-class fan tan game, and if the officers are hard-hearted enough to chesk his mad career by offering to close up his game, he will spend thousands of dollars in building strongholds, and, if necessary, he will go so far as to offer to bribe a whole city government. Now, John don't like to resort to this latter method, for his religion teaches him that officials should be looked upon as godly beings, but when he sees that his pet pleasure is about to be denied him, he will give his pigital an extra twist, toes his religion to one side, and wade into bribery just as if he was a full-fledged Democrat, with a great big chew of tobacco in his mouth. Now, this is the popular belief about John and his little gambling habits, and it has been told so often that everybody believes that copper-colored gamblers will spend two-thirds of their earnings for the benefit of any one who is willing to be bribed. Whenever he is pounced down on by the police and a big raid is made, he pungles whack at a first-class fan tan game, and if the officers are hard-hearted enough to cheek over his ball like a little man, and never thinks of fighting the case in court. In other words, he forfeits his ball, and the city treasury is so many dol-lars, according to the number of gamblers bail, and the city treasury is so many dollars, according to the number of gamblers captured, better off.

A number of raids have been made since Chief Cuddy took charge of the Police Department, and in every case John failed to show up in court. Mr. Cuddy made up his mind to put a stop to this kind of thing. He thought it about time for John to appear in court, so he ordered his officers to plant the next raid in the City Prison, and to keep the unruly heathen in the tank all night. At the very next raid made after the issuance of this order some 40 Chinamen were run in. While they were being booked at the chief's office the bug men of the gang were Lustiy engaged in dilgging up ball money, for they thought the same old performance would be gone through with. But when the prison-keeper passed over the taut-keys to the arresting officers and ordered them to look the whole batch over, John's smile changed to the wong corner of his mouth, to now the wrone batter over, John's smile changed to the wrong corner of his mouth, and in one voice the band grunted: "Whofo? policemonee, him too muchee dlam floolee," The protest had no effect, however, and the little brown men were solemnly marched to No. 10 and "thrown in" with a lot of drupks.

soleanly marched to No. 10 and "thrown in" with a lot of drunks.

Now comes the queer part of the story. There happened to be several of the Chinese gambling frateraity who were not in the room when the raid was made, and as they saw the turn sfishes had taken they rushed off, and in less than one hour and a half they returned with two prominent politicians, one a Republican and the other a Democrat. These politicians were not alone, for in the same hack came a Democratic Justice of the Peace and a deputy constable. The constable was armed with a warrant for the arrest of every Chinaman who had been thrown into the jug. The police had to throw open the City Prison, and the yarrely gamblers were marched out, the warrant for the arresson that the pug. I had been thrown into the Jug. I had to throw open the City Prison, and the had to throw open the City Prison, and the Justice accepting bail from each one at the rate of $10 a head, and they were released. The Chief was mad, of course, but he could do nothing, and he is now puzzled to know do nothing, and he is now puzzled to know one of the political parties is at the

A RESTAURANT FIRE.

The "Saratoga" Burned Out-Los About $3500. Messrs. Perry & Delay, the proprietors of the Saratoga restaurant, at the corner of Arcadia and Main streets, suffered yesterday serious loss from the fire that took place on their premises a little after 4 o'clock in the morning. Underneath the o'clock in the morning. Underneath the restaurant are located the storehouses, market and wme cellar, and it is supposed that the fire originated ameng some combustible material in the first-named department. A passerby noticed the smoke issuing forth, and sent in an alarm to the fire department, which quickly responded, and seen had the blaze under control, but not until about $850 worth of wine in barrels and bottles, provisions, etc., had been destroyed, and the restaurant upstairs badly damaged by water. The loss is estimated at $6500, which is partially, covered by insurance.

NOT A NIHILIST.

Mr. Leveaux Proves That He Is No A short notice of a case heard in the courtroom of Justice Taney, last Saturday, and reported in these columns on the day following, has seemingly given great offense to Gustave de Laveaux, who figured as the defendant in the case referred to. That gentleman was arrested and charged with surbing the peace, and also resisting the per when arrested. The report given by THE TIMES was a quiet smore, when to my mistorune I came in cootact with a German picture. All my pleasant sensations were gone, just as if I had touched a rattlesnake, and I just expressed my disgust."

The report given by The Times was a bisin statement of fact, with the exception at that it was asserted that Mr. de Laveaux was a Nihilist. As the centleman denies "the soft impeachment," it is but fair that the the denis it that the the biologis to a class that numbers is its ranks fair women and brave men of every grade of Russian society, from the Prince of the blood royal to the lowly peasant, groaning under a ruthless tyranny, neither one nor the other have thought it shame—as Mr. de Laveaux evidently does—to proclaim themselves Nihilists.

His delicate susceptibilities were so wounded that out of an overburdened stomach the outraged Pole proceeded to express his disgust. It seemed just here to strike Mr. de Laveaux that under certain ircumstances his words would not have been in order, for he said: "Has not a man a perfect right to express his opinion? I was in a public place. There were no ladies in the cigar store. There were no ladies in the cigar store. There were no minor children." So that the natural inference from his own language is that his "disgust" was so expressed as to outrage the feelings of ladies, had any been there. Possibly the fine inflicted by the Court will have the beneficial effect upon Mr. de Laveaux of teaching him that on certain subjects men are just as susceptible as ladies, and also that he does not contain within his own carcass all the patriotism of America.

THE MAYOR'S SCHEME.

THE MAYOR'S SCHEME.

The "Cactus" Gives the Whole Snap Away.

Last Saturday's "Cactus" gives Mayor Workman's scheme for capturing the gambiers away. The artist of that sheet evidently has a good understanding of the whole plan, for he goes into the most minute details, and shows plainly to the Swindlers and confidence men are heart.

Swindlers and confidence men are heart. The "Cactus" Gives the Whole Workman's scheme for capturing the gamblers away. The artist of that sheet evidently has a good understanding of the whole plan, for he goes into the most minute details, and shows plainly to the eye how the bright gold of the festive gambler and sad-eyed woman of ill-fame will be emptied into a big hopper, to be presided over by the Mayor's detective. From the hopper a long shoot runs to the Mayor's private den, where he catches the bright gold in a city treasury sack. In the background are a number of women of fill-fame and gamblers, both white and copper-colored, who are anxious to dump their gold into the hopper. The Mayor's chief reformer, Mr. Humphareys of the Folice Commission, stands near the end of the shoot and gracefully holds a handsome invitation transparency in full view of the public. On the opposite side of the shoot Chief Cuddy stands guard over the whole performance, and from the knowing look in his left eye, and from the knowing look in his left eye, he has made up his mind to hold the shoot level and see that the city is not cheated. A number of reporters are ranged along under the shoot, and from their actions it is very number of reporters are ranged along under the shoot, and from their actions it is very evident that they have designs against the bottom of that shoot. The Grand Jury is concealed behind the Mayor's private office, and each member seems to be anxious to get a peep through the Mayor's keyhole. AFTER GRIF.

The Detectives Will Attempt to Bring Him Back.

The case of Dr. G. Hamilton Griffin will be called in the City Court this morning, but as in all probability that decidedly slippery gentleman is over the line, and devoting his attention to the quick mastery of the Spanish tongue with a view to acquiring as ome of the Mexican cart-wheel dollars, it is not likely he will answer to his name. There seems to be only one course open, and that Is for his bondsmen to pay up and look piessant about it. Should Griffin, however, be so patriotic as to have an aversion to leaving American soil, it is possible that Los Angeles may be favored with his presence again. The gentlemen who went on his bond have placed the matter in the hands of the detectives and photographs of the flabby-faced mulattoo have seen suot all over the country, so should he not have left American soil there is a chance that the multitude of people in this city may have the satisfaction of getting—if not their money back, at least some little revenge for the frauds perpetrated upon them by the tricky Doctor.
